Harker Heights Kiwanis Club Meeting 05-09-17

Speaker: Gina Pence, President & CEO HH Chamber

Topic: Harker Heights Chamber of Commerce is 814 members strong – “Keepin it Local” and the “Chamber Gift Certificate Program” are two programs that encourage people to think local first. KCEN TV features chamber member’s businesses for $390 per month. This cost is so much less than regular commercial costs that many small businesses could never afford. Harker Heights Visitors Center is bringing events and travelers to the community. Destination Central Texas Tourism Partnership is with Belton, Temple, Killeen and Harker Heights and work together to bring events such as Texas Team Trail Tournament with 400 anglers attending and an economic impact of $400,00 for the community. A HOG Rally will be at the Expo Center in May and the Food, Wine & Brew Fest will be Sept 9th. Dinosaur George was a huge hit in April. For more info and events www.hhchamber.com

Happy Birthday: Steve Carpenter 5-11

Brags: Paul Loughran – has 3 in college and all are gainfully employed for the summer

Jos Portmann/ Darrel

Charlton's- grandson has completed his first year in the Cadet Corp at TX A & M and granddaughter was an award winning BB player and has been recruited to play basketball at UMHB

Norm Dunbar – grandson's baseball team won again and they are 2 for 2

Lisa Youngblood – daughter Sheridan has graduated from UMHB this weekend at 20 yrs old and it was Star Wars Day so she had her costume on at the graduation under her gown. Stars Wars Day took a priority with the family! :o)

Lunch: Golden Chick fried chicken, tenders, gravy, rolls, coleslaw, dirty rice, fruit salad & tea

Guests: none

Joke: Jos Portmann- Ever since the man was a child he was afraid to sleep at night because he thought there was someone under his bed. He goes to a shrink. It is going to cost $80 a visit 3 times a week. He decides to sleep on it before going to the doc. 6 months later he sees the doc on the street. He asks why didn't you come see me? The man says a bartender cured him for $10. Ask Jos what the bartender told him. 😊

FYI: Time Education

Submitted by: Jos Portmann

TIME ... I THOUGHT ... I thought that Time could never reconcile me to my loss. I thought that to the end of living it would be my cross; a heavy weight that I would have to carry to the last. But Time was kinder than I thought --- grief died and sorrow passed. I thought I'd lost forever all my joy in lovely things; wood and gardens, waves and gardens, dawns and sunsets, leaves and wings. I never thought my heart would leap to greet a friend once more --- and listen to the welcome sound of footsteps at the door. Once again within the magic web of life I'm caught. Time indeed was kind to me, for Time its healing brought.
