Topic: Harker Heights Events Planning – This is a very busy time of the year for the city. Lots of events are planned in the community that meets the needs and the enjoyment of the residents. Regular on going programs include exercise classes, senior programs, “Go Heights ” outdoor program, Farmers Market and holiday events. 2 favorites are the Family Valentine Dance and the PuppyPalooza. Right now there are several Christmas events. Frost Fest will be on Friday, Dec 14th at Market Heights from 5:30 -8:30 pm. There will be a Wreath Decorating Competition. Sign up by Dec 7th and drop off your wreath between 3:00 – 5:00 pm Friday at the Frost Fest for judging. The theme is “Texas Christmas Ya’ll”. There will be a Holiday Farmers Market at the event so sign up by Dec 7th. The Parade of Lights registration deadline is Dec 5th and the voting will be Dec 12-18. Your home must be located in Harker Heights to enter. There will be a map of the homes so you can drive around and see them and vote on for your favorites. For more information on city events go to <http://www.ci.harker-heights.tx.us> and click on Departments, Parks & Recreation.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Homographs are words of like spelling but with more than one meaning. It has been said by non-English speaking individuals that English is a very difficult language to learn. Twelve examples of homographs depicts the “why” English is difficult to learn:

- 1) The bandage was wound around the wound; 2) The farm was used to produce produce; 3) The dump was so full that it had to refuse more refuse. 4) We must polish the Polish furniture; 5) He could lead if he would get the lead out; 6) The soldier decided to desert his dessert in the desert; 7) Since there is no time like the present, he thought it was time to present the present; 8) A bass was painted on the head of the bass drum; 9) When shot at, the dove dove into the bushes; 10) I did not object to the object; 11) The insurance was invalid for the invalid and 12) There was a row among the oarsmen about how to row.
