How Can You Stay Motivated with a Long-Term Illness?

1. Don't spend too much time by yourself – being with family and friends is good for your spirits.
2. Do not ignore signs of problems with your health.
3. Think positive thoughts to yourself each day.
4. Read or watch something that makes you feel better.
5. Follow your care plan daily.
6. Get outside and breathe fresh air.
