Harker Heights Kiwanis Club Meeting 01-12-21

Speaker: Raymond Cockrell, Executive Director of the Killeen Area Food Care Center

Topic: Food Care Center – is a 501 (c) 3 that was begun as a faith based program in 1987 by First Baptist and St Joseph Churches. They are located at 210 16th St in Killeen. They are open Tuesday- Friday 9-1 and 1st & 3rd Fri evening 4-7. The center is funded 95% locally by churches, civic groups and individuals. Due to Covid 19 restrictions the distribution methods have changed. Volunteers are needed to help sort and bag items so clients can come through in smaller numbers and be done quickly. Clients can visit once a month. There are record numbers served this past year, around 90,000. They distributed over 7000 relief boxes for the elderly. $1.00 can buy 7 meals. This past Food for Families was all cash donations, $126,000 mostly from HEB. They hope to eventually be able to get back to the student programs with the community garden and special needs kids training that had been suspended because of the Covid 19 restrictions. If you want to volunteer or donate you can call Ray at 512-818-1497 or email at foodcare@embarqmail.com or visit the website www.foodcare.org
To mail a donation send to: Food Care Center, P O Box 1656, Killeen, TX 76540. FAQ <http://www.foodcare.org/Default.aspx?menuid=fag> for more information.
