Brags: Lisa Youngblood bragged on the Key Club. She is able to attend meetings after school now. They did a great job on the food/clothing drive for the KISD HARP (homeless student) program. They provided food and other needed items to take home on Spring break. They saw a need and stepped up to fill that need.

Lisa also picked up the SOTY scholarship for Darrel Charlton and committee to judge and submit. HHHS has had a winning student two years in a row.

Vivian Marschik – The Builders Club has had a slow start this year as I have not been allowed in the school yet but they finished 100 Easter cards for Indian Oaks residents. I will be delivering them. They hope by next year the students will be able to go again. We are planning some outdoor projects such as our Adopt-a-Spot park cleanup, a Freddy's fundraiser to make improvements to the courtyard at Eastern Hills. We will be making dog and cat chew toys from all the T shirts members donated today. The club brought 88 shirts!

Prayers: All those in need

Lunch: IHOP Harker Heights / the club also voted to go to Zum Edelweiss for the meeting on the 2nd Tuesday of the month and to continue at IHOP on the 4th Tuesday of the month.
