Speaker: Dana Brown & Rick Naylor

Topic: PACT Partners Against Child Trafficking – are working to stop the sex trafficking of minors across the country. As of March there have been over 79,000 minors trafficked this year in Texas. Be aware of the signs of victims. Look for “Red Flags” such as depression, anxiety, nervousness, possession of a prepaid cell phone, fake ID, changes in school performance. Handlers control the minor and lead them to believe they are the ones who care more about them than anyone else in their life. The PACT group has developed a student course where student peer groups learn how to help other students who find themselves in this dangerous world of child sex trafficking. Pictured is Sophie who is a student at a high school in Austin who started a group of 20 students as PACT Butterfly Ambassadors. The course is STOP (stop trafficking on the premises) The course costs $5 per student and they ask for donations from businesses and individuals to support the program.
