Board Meeting today after the regular meeting

Pancake Supper: President Paul Loughran filled the club members in on a way another Kiwanis Club held their pancake meal in this time of Covid. They partnered with their local McDonalds. The club sold tickets to be redeemed over a certain 5 day period for a pancake meal at any of the local McDonalds in their area. The tickets sold for $6 and the club was able to keep $4. They also sold advertisement banners from sponsors that were displayed during this event. More options were discussed for further fundraising during the event and maybe some door prizes.

David McClure said Raising Cane is also willing to work with clubs for fundraising.

Lisa Youngblood spoke about Christmas events in the planning stages for Harker Heights. Our club will participate in at least one for children.

Flag Program: Darrel Charlton said the flag barn will be open at 7:15 am for the Veteran's Day flag program
