Harker Heights Kiwanis Club Meeting 11-28-23

Speaker: Yvonne Spell, City of Harker Heights City Planner
Topic: Water – This year we had been in a major drought. The city gets it's water from Belton Lake. Recent rains have made quite a difference. Our current status is stage 2, 3 inches of rain we could move into stage 1 drought condition. Yvonne provided the 2022 water use by type, the reservoir accounting, U S drought monitor and current lake levels.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time.
