Harker Heights Kiwanis Club Meeting 06-28-22

Speaker: HHPD Chief Phil Gadd

Topic: Harker Height Police Department: On December 7, 2012, the Harker Heights Police Department received the award of “Recognized Law Enforcement Agency” from the Texas Police Chiefs Association Law Enforcement Recognition Program. The department makes the best use of the city funds and grants to keep the force up to date on needed equipment such as body cams, tasers, body armor, communications equipment, a robot, drones, flares and more. The Community Services Division of the Harker Heights Police Department is geared toward facilitating the community-oriented or problem-solving efforts of the Department by providing various crime prevention services and educational programs to the citizens of the community such as: Healthy Homes, Kiddo Cards, House Watch, Neighborhood Watch, Citizen Police Academy, Citizen Volunteer Program, Blue Santa, National Night Out and more!
