Harker Heights Kiwanis Club Meeting 06-14-22

Speaker: Angel Carroll and Destinee Barton

Topic: HHPD Healthy Homes – It was established in 2011. The Healthy Homes Program's purpose is to link area social service organizations and community resources with those families who would benefit from them. Once identified, the Harker Heights Police Department refers those in need to an already existing resource, thereby helping to short circuit the dysfunctional trend in that home before a crime occurs. The Healthy Homes Program is geared toward early and timely intervention to break violent or dysfunctional cycles in homes and provide options for those in need. The Healthy Homes Program May be Helpful in Cases of: • Crime Victims' Assistance • Emergency Shelter Resources • Domestic Violence • Mental Health Referrals • Homeless Shelter Resources • Food Bank and Food Pantry Resources • Protective Order Information. For more info or assistance: healthyhomes@harkerheights.gov or call Angel Carroll Coordinator & Crime Victim Advocate 254-953-5439 or Destinee Barton, Youth Services Specialist and Crime Victim Advocate 254-953-5429
