Harker Heights Kiwanis Club Meeting 08-23-22

Speaker: Lisa Youngblood, Director of Library Services

Topic: Harker Heights Library and school programs

The Library received a grant on $9955 for community outreach. This grant is part of the Covid 19 monies. The library has designated an area where it is quiet for patrons who have experienced trauma or stress. The library can be a haven for all people. The “Maker Space” has been very successful and the library is accepting all kinds of craft materials and supplies. The Maker Space is open from 2-7 on Wednesday & Thursday and on Saturday. The Rec Center has a Gameroom on Monday and Friday for all ages. The Little Library boxes are going to be installed in Kern Park. On Friday, Aug 26th Kern Park will have a “Back to School Bash” from 5:30- 7:30 pm. The Community Garden at Kern Park will have the official opening on Arbor Day. The library has also started a “Seed Library” with Free packages of all kinds of seeds can be picked up. Lisa has also attended several KISD meetings where school safety is discussed and the training of school personnel.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time.
